BELGAUM DISTRICT.

Notification dated 21st November 1956.

ORDER.

No. DC—Pol. 1476. Whereas it has been reported that on account of large number of persons likely to assemble at the ensuing fair to be held at Godachi a Village in Ramdurg Taluka, during the period from 15th December 1956 to 19th December 1956, epidemic of cholera is apprehended at the said fair and it is necessary to take preventive measures to check the spread of the epidemic.

Now therefore in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 43 of the Bombay Police Act, 1951, I, A. A. Shaikh, Additional District Magistrate, Belgaum, hereby prohibit during the period from 15th December 1956 to 19th December 1956.

(i) Any person visiting the said fair from entering it, without producing a certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner to the effect that he/she has been inoculated against cholera within a period of six months prior to the date of his/her visit or unless he/she satisfies the Medical Officer appointed for the purpose or the Mamlatdar of Ramdurg or any officer authorised by him, that he/she is so inoculated at the time of his/her visit to the said fair.

(ii) The sale of exposed articles of food and drink in the fair area.

Arrangements for inoculations will be made at the said places.

Any person disobeying the above order will be liable to be prosecuted under section 139 of the Bombay Police Act, 1951.

Given under my hand and seal this 21st day of November 1956.

R. VENKATACHALAM,
409 Dist. Magist.

OFFICE OF THE TALUKA MAGISTRATE INDI.

Notification dated 27th November 1956.

Order under Section 144, Criminal Procedure Code.

No. P.O.L. Whereas the Bye-election of Village Panchayat is being held at Salotagi on 3rd December 1956.

And whereas it has been made to appear to me that on account of the keen contest between the candidates belonging to rival parties, the gathering and collection of persons not connected with the said elections and not entitled to vote at the said elections and the canvassing of votes in or near the polling station at Salotagi Village is likely to cause obstruction, annoyance or injury to persons lawfully entitled to vote and to candidates and their accredited agents and is likely to cause disturbance or public tranquillity.

And whereas, I am of the opinion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding under Section 144, Criminal Procedure and that immediate and speedy remedy is desirable.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred on me Under Section 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898, I, A. A. Chandshah, B.A. (Hons.), Taluka Magistrate, Indi, do hereby direct the residents, frequenters and visitors, not being candidates or their accredited agents or officials employed for the conduct of the said elections or bona fide voters intending to exercise their votes at the appointed place to abstain from;

(1) Loitering or collecting or assembling in groups or bodies of five or more persons on any public thoroughfare, highway, street, lane, by-lane, or road within the limits of Salotagi village and also within 100 yards of the polling station. (Place where voting takes place).

(3) Carrying of Arms, Cudgels, swords, spears, knives sticks, or lathis or any other articles which are capable of being used for committing an offence.

I further prohibit disorderly behaviour within the polling station or in public or private places within a distance of 100 yards from the polling station.

This order shall remain in force from 2nd December 1956 to 3rd December 1956 (both days inclusive).

Given under my hand and seal of the court this 28th day of November 1956.
